The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 4484th meeting, held on 5 March 2002 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, having before it a letter dated 26 February 2002 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2002/209).

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Spain, Ukraine and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, at their request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote.

In accordance with the understanding reached in the Council's prior consultations, the President, with the consent of the Council, extended invitations under rule 39 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure to Wolfgang Petritsch, High Representative for the Implementation of the Peace Agreement on Bosnia and Herzegovina, and Jacques Paul Klein, Special Representative of the Secretary-General and Coordinator of United Nations Operations in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

In response to the request contained in a letter dated 1 March 2002 from the Permanent Representative of Spain to the United Nations (S/2002/218), the President, with the consent of the Council, extended an invitation under rule 39 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure to Javier Solana, Secretary-General of the Council of the European Union and High Representative for the Common Foreign and Security Policy.

The President drew attention to a draft resolution (S/2002/221) that had been prepared in the course of the Council's prior consultations.

The Security Council proceeded to vote on draft resolution S/2002/221, and adopted it unanimously as resolution 1396 (2002) (for the text, see S/RES/1396 (2002); to be issued in Official Records of the Security Council, Fifty-seventh Year, Resolutions and Decisions of the Security Council, 2002).
